

A short story about a missing cat

Fill in the blanks to complete the story

We have a cat called _____ (what shall we call this cat?)

She went out one day to _____ but did not come back for _____ (how long has she been missing?).

My Mum, Dad and I went to see if she was in _____ (her favourite hiding place) but we could not find her.

We knocked on our neighbours' doors, but they said _____.

We went home to see if she had got back, but _____.

My Mum and Dad said that we could make some posters on the computer, and put them _____.

We sat down and thought about _____ (name of cat) and looked for a good picture of her.

Then we made a poster.

We were feeling very _____, but eventually the cat came back. We think she had been _____ and we were very happy to have her back.
