

Volunteering Opportunities at Oak Tree:

eBay Volunteer

Do you enjoy selling on eBay? Do you love animals? Would you like to sell donated items online to raise money to help animals in need in our region? If so we have the perfect opportunity for you.

Oak Tree are seeking an eBay volunteer to help raise vital funds by securing the best price possible for an item that has been donated.

The role will include:

- Checking and sorting items for online sale
- Researching an item's value online or in catalogues
- Taking photos of donated items
- Listing items onto our eBay page, including writing accurate, engaging descriptions
- Packing sold items for dispatch to buyers and posting them.

You will need to have/be:

- Good IT skills with a familiarity with eBay, or a willingness to learn
- The ability to research the value of items using the internet
- Good communication and writing skills
- Honest, reliable and trustworthy
- An interest in raising money to help Oak Tree Animals' Charity

You will gain:

- A full induction and training required for the role
- Support from our dedicated volunteer co-ordinator
- The opportunity to volunteer as part of a team to make a real difference to the lives of animals
- Online sales, office and retail experience

This role is based at Oak Tree Farm, Wetheral, although home-based volunteering would be considered.

To apply for this volunteer role please complete the volunteering form at www.oaktreeanimals.org.uk, email: volunteering@oaktreeanimals.org.uk or call Lotte on 01228 560082